

Games Industry in Lithuania

Are you ready to level up your business game?

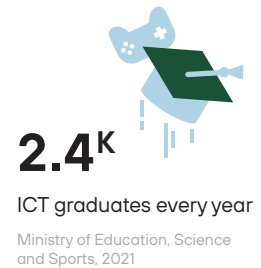

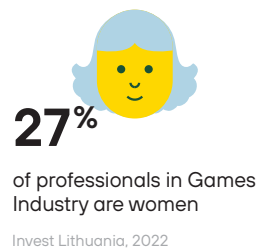

The Lithuanian Games Industry has grown 3 times within the last five years. This growth was fueled by new startups, the expansion of established companies, and new international companies joining the local ecosystem. The growing number of Games Industry companies is creating a welcoming and vibrant environment supported by Lithuanian Game Developers Association (LGDA) and various industry events.

Games Industry in Lithuania

Games Industry talent pool in Lithuania

Join a growing TECH ecosystem that nurtures innovation

Games Industry educational initiatives in Lithuania

Local companies have launched several educational and upskilling programs to further improve the talent pipeline.

4

universities and colleges offering Games development programs

Lithuanian Game Developers Association, 2022

Estoty School offers courses that provide students with all the skills and tools required for mobile game development and opportunities for gaining hands-on experience.

ESTOTY
SCHOOL

Wargaming Forge is a part-time internship program for talented individuals that allows them to learn the job from top-notch games development experts working in Lithuania.

Wargaming
Forge

Gamedev Camp is an upskilling program whose innovative approach changes the way young game developers acquire practical experience and get hired.

Gamedev
Camp

Games Industry events in Lithuania

Lithuania hosts the biggest popular culture event in the Baltics.

LT GAME JAM

the largest games development event in the Baltics which takes place over the course of 48 hours.

BLON

an innovative festival that offers visitors the opportunity to enjoy outstanding animated films and games, as well as AR and VR experiences from around the globe

the biggest video game convention in the Baltics.

Lithuania hosts the largest European conference of Games Industry's top legal professionals, curated through a collaborative effort that spans 45 individual countries.

the biggest Games Industry conference in Eastern Europe aimed at developers, publishers, game designers, and attracting new talent.

Streamlined migration for international talent

EU Blue Card

a residence and work permit designed for highly-skilled non-EU citizens

Startup Visa

streamlined entry process to the Lithuanian startup ecosystem for innovative non-EU entrepreneurs

Group Relocation

simplified migration procedure allowing companies to relocate 20+ of their employees from outside the EU

Who's already here?

Invest Lithuania

Invest Lithuania is working proactively with international companies across the Games Industry and provides support for those aiming to enter the Lithuanian market free of charge.

Decision-making

We'll assist you with information on:

- talent pool, business and regulatory environment;
- business costs and incentives;
- local market and industry.

Business set up

We'll connect you with everyone you need to guarantee a soft landing:

- service providers;
- key market players;
- relevant governmental institutions.

We'll provide you with support by:

- sharing best practices with regard to employer branding, PR and recruitment;
- advising on financial incentives provided by the Government.

Aftercare

Once you're up and running, we'll be there with:

- continuous assistance to help you meet your long-term goals;
- advising on further Government-provided incentives to support your growth.

Contact us:

Gintarė Bačiulienė
Head of Tech team

gintare.baciuliene@investlithuania.com